SERVICE CHARGES

A. GENERAL

1. Service charges are applicable with the establishment of the telephone service, and for subsequent changes and additions thereto as specified in this tariff.
2. Service charges consisting of one or more of the following charges may apply for new or additional service or changes in service which require the activity or work as briefly indicating under "Charges" or as specified under Application of Charges or as modified by specific Tariff items elsewhere in this tariff.

B. APPLICATION OF CHARGES

1. Establishment of Service - An establishment of service charge applies on each customer order when a new customer account is established. The Establishment of Service Charge also applies to:

Establishment of a special billing number account at the customer's request.
Change to nonpublished number service.

The Establishment of Service Charges does not apply to:

Change in grade of service.
Change in billing address
Discontinuance of nonpublished number service
Discontinuance of any service if changes in equipment are not required.
Change in classification of service (bus. or res.)

2. Line Connection Charge - A line connection charge, per line, is made for each line on which work is required by the service order; in the central office; outside plant; drop wire; or other portion of plant up to the premises served.

4. Other Applications or Exceptions To Service Charges

- a. The charges specified herein do not contemplate work being performed by the company employees at a time when overtime wages apply due to the request of the customer nor do they contemplate work begun being interrupted by the customer. If the customer requests overtime labor being performed or interrupts work once begun, a charge in addition to the specified charges will be made equal to the additional cost involved.
- b. No service charge will apply when the service is rendered inoperative by fire or other cause beyond the control of the customer which renders the premises unfit for occupancy and service is re-established at another location.
